

Crosswords: Employee & Employers Association

Across

- committees of workers who are consulted on matters that affect employees.
- where all employees must be a member of same trade union.
- group of workers who have joined together to protect their interest.
- employees are not allowed to enter the workplace by the employers
- trade union which represents a particular type of skilled worker.
- employees do their normal task but more slowly than usual.
- group of workers who meet regularly to discuss their problems
- a situation when employees refuse to work
- listens to both sides in the industrial dispute and then gives a ruling
- employees stand outside factory and prevent the smooth functioning of work.

Down

- agreement where a firm deals with only one particular trade union
- unpaid representative of a trade union at factory level.
- _____ associations: group of employers
- agreement for increase in benefits in return of increase in productivity
- rules are strictly followed
- _____ bargaining: negotiations between trade unions and management